Since 2004, The University of California’s Transcript Evaluation Service (TES) has helped more than 160 schools increase “a-g” completion and college eligibility among their students. A newly updated and improved TES is now being made available to schools throughout California to dramatically increase access to the UC and CSU systems, especially for low-income, educationally disadvantaged students from diverse backgrounds.

SCHOOLS USING TES EXPERIENCED:

32.1% increase in
CSU eligibility*

20.6% increase in
UC eligibility*

35.7% increase in “a-g” course completion rates*

* In schools that used TES for three years. By the fourth year of using TES, schools saw a 41% average increase in graduates applying to UC.
